Insure your car in The TRAVELERS

Smashed the Fence and the Piazza

Then the house owner brought a good-sized claim for damages and the automobilist had to pay. There was also a nice repair bill on the car—both of which the automobilist would have escaped if he had had insurance. Be wise in time. Telephone today.

The chicken dinner and bazaar given by the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday evening was a great success. It was well patronized by the people of Torrance and surrounding vicinity, and they take this opportunity to thank the people for their interest. They cleared $125.

A very interesting address was given by Dr. Luther G. Reynolds, superintendent of the Methodist Hospital in Los Angeles, and many expressed the hope that he would come again and speak. The ladies regret that there was not room for all to remain to hear him.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church have a few articles of fancy work left from their bazaar which are very desirable for Christmas gifts. They will be sale at reduced prices. Anyone wishing to see them may call at Mrs. Warren's home, 1743 Andreo street

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will be held Tuesday, Dec. 20, at the home of Mrs. Mary Perkins, 1812 Gramercy street, at 2:30 o'clock. All ladies are welcome. If you are a stranger come and get acquainted. We will be very glad to receive you.

General Washington was once riding along with his orderly on a country road when he was met by a negro slave, who graciously took off his hat and saluted the General. Immediately he returned the salute, to the astonishment of his orderly, who said: "Do you salute a negro?" "Yes," answered Washington. "I can't afford to allow a negro to be more polite than I am."

Dance Sat. Night—Lomita Hall.

community interest and for that reason it is predicted that packed houses will greet the local people in their offering.

Seats will be on sale at the D. and D. Drug Store on Friday, December 16, at 10 a. m.
